

S. S. S. UNEQUALED FOR BAD BLOOD

Normal, healthy blood contains millions of tiny red corpuscles, which are the vitalizing and nourishing element of the circulation. These corpuscles are constantly forming in healthy systems by the extraction of nutriment from food eaten, and this nutriment is then supplied through the circulation to every portion of the system. Any system which does not receive the proper amount of blood nutriment is not prepared to withstand the countless disorders that assail it. Bad blood can not nourish the body, the circulation must be pure, rich and strong if we would enjoy good health. Bad blood manifests itself in various ways. With some it takes the form of skin diseases and eruptions, others become bilious and malarious, with sallow complexions, torpid liver, etc. If the germs and impurities in the blood are of a more virulent nature than bad blood becomes more serious and produces Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, and like troubles. Nothing equals S. S. S. for bad blood. It is Nature's own blood purifier, made from roots, herbs and barks. It goes into the circulation and removes every impurity or poison, strengthens and enriches the blood, and in this way supplies the body with the proper amount of nutriment to maintain good health. S. S. S. is likewise the finest of all tonics and while purifying the blood builds up every portion of the system. S. S. S. cures every ailment coming from bad blood, and it does so simply because it purifies the circulation. Book on the blood sent free to all who write.

SPORTS

FIGHT WILL NOT BE STOPPED, SAYS EXPERT

By E. W. DICKERSON.

Simply because a novice died from the result of injuries received in a contest with an experienced professional is about as likely to cause interference with the Jeffries-Johnson fight in July as the death of some high school football player would be to cause the game on Thanksgiving day in Denver to be called off. McCarthy's death will be forgotten, except by the sorrowing friends and relatives long before the big mill, and the most that can be made of it is that a man unfit to come with such an opponent as Moran was sent into the ring with him as a setup.

Boxing is lawful in California and the only way a boxing bout could be interfered with by the state authorities would be for an extra session of the legislature to be called and the law repealed, which makes fighting a legitimate occupation. Fine chance of such a thing being done when the holding of the fight means the importation of thousands of good spenders who will let loose millions of dollars while they are in the state. Other deaths have occurred in California rings, and there have been many fatalities in football and baseball without the California legislature putting a stamp of disapproval on them.

Had McCarthy died as the result of injuries received in a contest taking place in a state where the game is under the ban it would have constituted a felony. As it is it was nothing more or less than an accident, as is liable to happen in any kind of strenuous sport, even in croquet. The agitation aroused by the death of McCarthy is only to be expected from those who have been waiting for the first opening of this kind, that they might assail the game which has advertised California the world over and caused thousands to visit the state who might not otherwise have been attracted there.

One report, coming from Chicago yesterday was to the effect that Jack Johnson had wired a Chicago friend advising him and other negro sporting men not to put a dollar on him until further advised. Johnson was alleged to have expressed the fear that the death of McCarthy has given fuel to the fight now being made by the church people against the big battle in July.

Common sense, if nothing else, will tell one that there is nothing to such a report. Even if he had any such feeling, Johnson would be too foolish enough to express it in such a way. Suppose his friends were betting on him, would they not get their money back if the fight should be called off? You may paste this in your hat: Johnson never sent any such a message, and Johnson is not the least bit scared that the agitation is going to have any effect on the fight. It is dollars to doughnuts that he is far more scared that Jeffries will back out than he is that the authorities will interfere.

Another message coming from Albany is to the effect that Senator Big Tim Sullivan, permanent stakeholder for the fight, has heard nothing to indicate a hitch in the arrangements, and that it is news to him if the promoters have talked of taking it to Nevada. In the event the California authorities interfere. In other words, Big Tim, the man who would be the first to be appraised of such a plan, has heard nothing of it.

Still another message, this coming from Frisco, is to the effect that Jack Gleason, Tex Rickard's partner in the promotion of the big mill, speaking for Johnson, denounces as a fake the message alleged to have been received by Johnson's Chicago friend. Evidently Johnson treated the report so lightly as not to deem it worth his personal denial, or it might be that he does not want the people to think that he is such a poor judge of human nature as to choose such false friends.

possible that one or two will be added by noon tomorrow. The race has a value of $4,000.

Joe Morris, Boala Boala and Royal Report will be asked to accept 117 pounds as an impost, while Gallant Pirate has been allotted 114 pounds and Milton B. will be the lightest weighted of the sextette with 111 pounds.

In accordance with the law of Kentucky, Pari Mutuals and auction pools will be used exclusively by the track management for those desiring to wager on the results.

CHOYNSKI AND CORBETT FRIENDS

BEN LOMOND, Cal., June 5.—Jim Jeffries performed prettily today before 500 spectators in his training camp gymnasium. Three rounds of speedy sparring with Joe Choynski set the crowd wild with delight. The pace was so fast that it is doubtful if Choynski could have gone many more rounds. Jeffries came out of it smiling. He was in rare good humor and boxed with his face to the crowd so all could get a good look at him.

The gymnasium program included rope skipping, bag punching, shadow boxing and a short tug at the chest weights. Another little sparring match not on the program was a feature of the day. The principals were Jim Corbett and Choynski, who had been bitter enemies since their last battle in 1889, until they met recently in the camp here. Now they are inseparable cronies. They happened to come together with the gloves today in this way.

After Jeffries had finished his ring work John Martin, chief of police of San Francisco, who was down for the afternoon, drew Jeffries aside and asked him to appear in an exhibition in San Francisco June 11 for the benefit of a fraternal organization. Jeffries said that he would like to accommodate the chief, but that it would be impossible for him to break his rule.

"I can't take a chance," he said, "of a change of cooking or water, but besides it would cut into my regular sleeping hours."

Corbett and Choynski happened to overhear the conversation. They immediately volunteered their services offering to appear in a three-round exhibition.

Their offer was accepted and after Jeffries had gone out the old cronies decided to start in training with each other right away. They stepped through three gentle rounds, each very careful not to hurt the other. Although the pace was slow, it told on Corbett, who was breathing heavily at the final call. The news that the two veterans were at it drew a crowd running to the gymnasium.

Final arrangements for the moving pictures of the fight will be signed by representatives of the two camps in San Francisco tomorrow and Tuesday. Manager Sam Berger returned to camp tonight after attending picture details in San Francisco. Promoter Jack Gleason called on Jeffries today and held a long conversation with him. He said that he came down for pleasure only and left for home tonight. Jeffries motored down to Santa Cruz tonight and will spend the day tomorrow deep sea fishing in Monterey bay.

JOHNSON FIRES HIS MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—An open warfare between Champion Jack Johnson and George Little, his manager, which started Saturday night and wound up this afternoon when Johnson told Little that he was discharged, was the main topic of conversation at the beach today. Little, who claims that he has an iron clad contract with Johnson that is to run until May, 1911, threatens trouble and says that unless the differences are settled up, he will stop the big fight. It is not believed that he can accomplish anything of the sort, but if he does it is possible that he can force the negro to an accounting.

In spite of the fact that he was presumably discharged, Little insisted upon remaining at the door to take tickets and not until Johnson, backed up by a squad of city police, appeared, did Little take his departure.

According to Johnson, the quarrel arose because Little became jealous of Sig Hart.

Hart is one of my friends," said Johnson. "I have taken him out automobile with me and Little did not like it. Then he threatened to whip Hart and I told him that was the end. I don't want any more to do with him. He has not any contract that he can hold me to."

This is the statement issued by Little: "I have a contract with Johnson that binds him to give me 25 per cent of his profits and I am authorized to make all contracts for boxing matches, theatrical shows or anything of the like. The $10,000 that we put up is my money. I will manage Johnson or there will be no fight and if I withdraw they can take that forfeit."

This trouble delayed the boxing in the afternoon, but Johnson went through an unusually hard program that included four rounds with Cootton and Cutler and two with Dave Mills. At the conclusion of his work Johnson weighed for the newspaper men, tipping the scales at 212 pounds, the lowest he has weighed since his training started. He will do no boxing until Wednesday, but will be in the gymnasium every afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Following the discharge of George Little of Chicago as his manager, Jack Johnson announced tonight that Billy Nolan would handle his affairs hereafter. Nolan confirmed this statement.

BEST AMATEUR GIVEN IN OGDEN

The play "Shorty," which was presented by the alumni of the Weber academy Tuesday evening, was largely attended and proved a most creditable performance. A critic in writing to this paper says:

The audience seemed taken by storm at the professional manner which characterized the whole performance. The success was evidently the result of long application and systematic coaching. This one performance has placed the academy in an enviable position as far as dramatic effort is concerned. Although it is not generally known, the play itself was composed of other plays and then revised by members of the class of 1910, which speaks well for their dramatic ability.

Every one who saw the production was pleasantly surprised and efforts were made to secure another engagement at the same place, but the graduating class is already scattered and the play, "Shorty," will probably never be staged again.

The proceeds of the play were turned over to the gymnasium fund and, by general concession, the class of 1910 enjoys the distinction of having played one of the best amateur performances ever given in Ogden.

APPLE GROWERS TO SPRAY TREES

R. N. Rasmussen, the county fruit inspector, informed the public that the apple growers' enemy has commenced its destructive work and a large percentage of the worms seem to be going in on the side of the apples. Mr. Rasmussen advises all the growers who have not done the proper spraying to get busy at once. He recommends a mist spray an do cover the apples all over with poison. Mr. Rasmussen's formula is six pounds arsenate of lead to 120 gallons of water.

Mr. Rasmussen is confident in the success of his formula and if the growers carry out the formula it will prove very beneficial.

YOUNG NEGRO FRIGHTENS GIRLS

Albert Thomas, the young negro who recently completed a term in the local jail for burglarizing the Shupe-Williams candy house, was arrested Saturday night by Chief Browning and Guard Paine on the charge of vagrancy.

Thomas passed most of Saturday evening strolling about Lester park where he succeeded in terrorizing the feminine population of the neighborhood and a hurry-up call was sent in to police headquarters to that effect. Hence the arrest.
